PERFORMERS THEATRE COMPANY

PHOTOGRAPHS AND IMAGES POLICY

Performance, by its nature, is visual and often requires photographs or images of young people to illustrate its work. It is essential therefore, that such images are controlled, and here follows the policy adopted by Performers Theatre Company.

When parents sign their child up via ClassManager (our registration and invoice system), they can choose to give permission for photographs to be taken and used on any Performers' publications. This decision can be changed at a later date.

The photographer will be informed that the images he or she creates can only be used with the approval of Performers.

Performers does not allow members of the audience or parents to photograph or video any event, unless prior permission has been given. In which case, clear guidelines are given, for example: only photographing their child, if uploading to social media ensuring no other children's face can be identified. This is to protect all children in our care.

Performers will authorise photography or video for promotional or archive purposes.

Copyright of photographs taken on behalf of Performers remains the property of Performers.
