

Abanazar dialogue

ABANAZAR: Greetings, peasants! I'm Abanazar, magician extraordinaire and wannabe ruler of the world! But to do so, I must first obtain a magic lamp containing a powerful Genie, which lies hidden in a cave deep within the forbidden mountains. The cave is protected by magic that only one pure of thought and brave of heart can enter. And that isn't me. I will consult the Slave of the ring to help me find such a person. [rubs a large ring] Slave of the ring, I command you appear!
